to everything there is a season . . .

Yesterday is but today's memory
and tomorrow is today's dream.

Kahil Gibran

Life is short and we have not too much time gladdening
the hearts of those who are traveling the dark way with us.
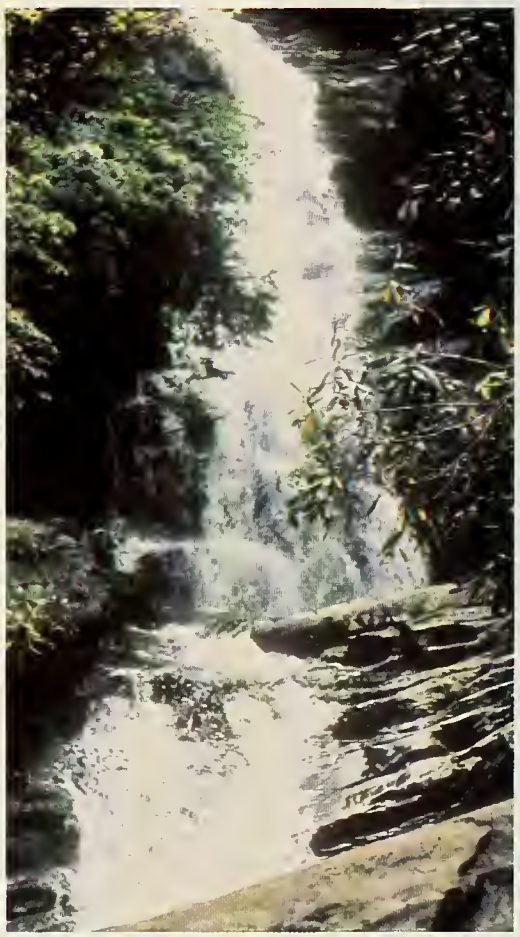
Oh be swift to love!
Make haste to be kind.

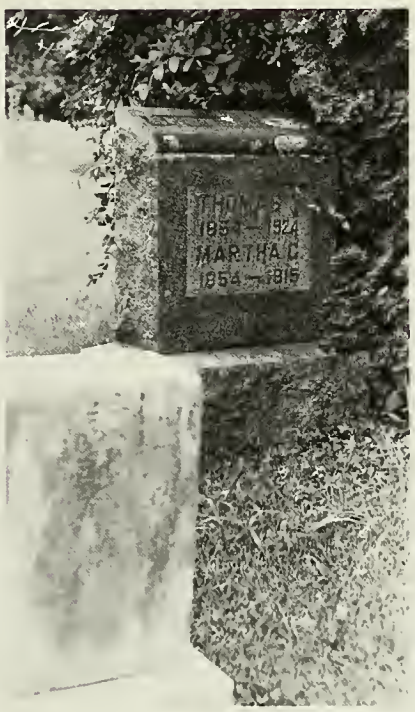
Henri Ameil



and a time to every purpose under heaven;

a time to be born,

and a time to die;



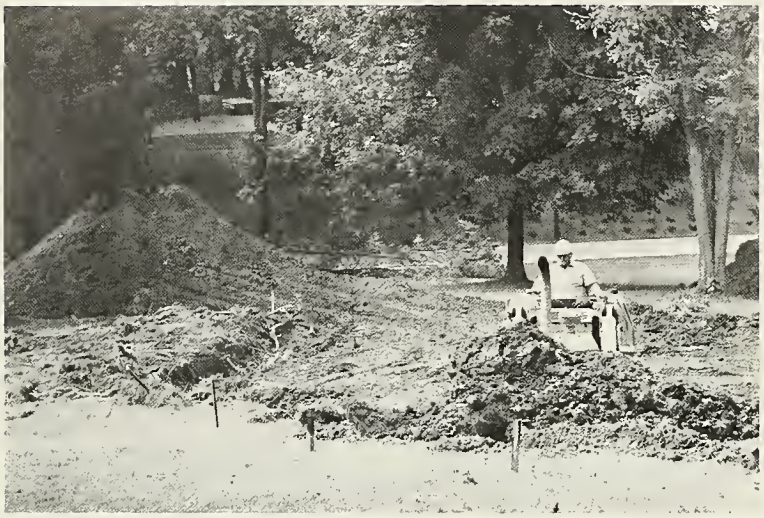
a time to plant,

and a time to reap that which is planted;

a time to kill,

and a time to heal;

a time to break down,



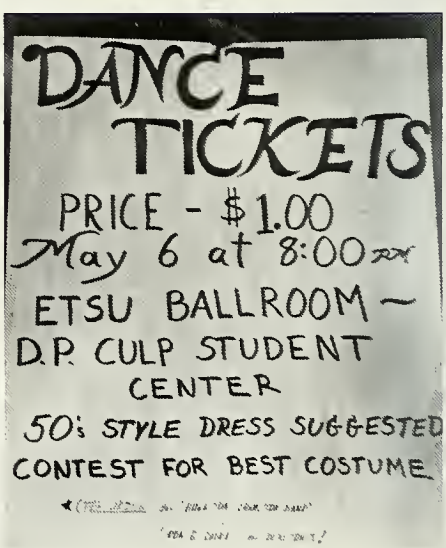
and a time to build up;

a time to weep,

and a time to laugh;

a time to mourn,

and a time to dance;

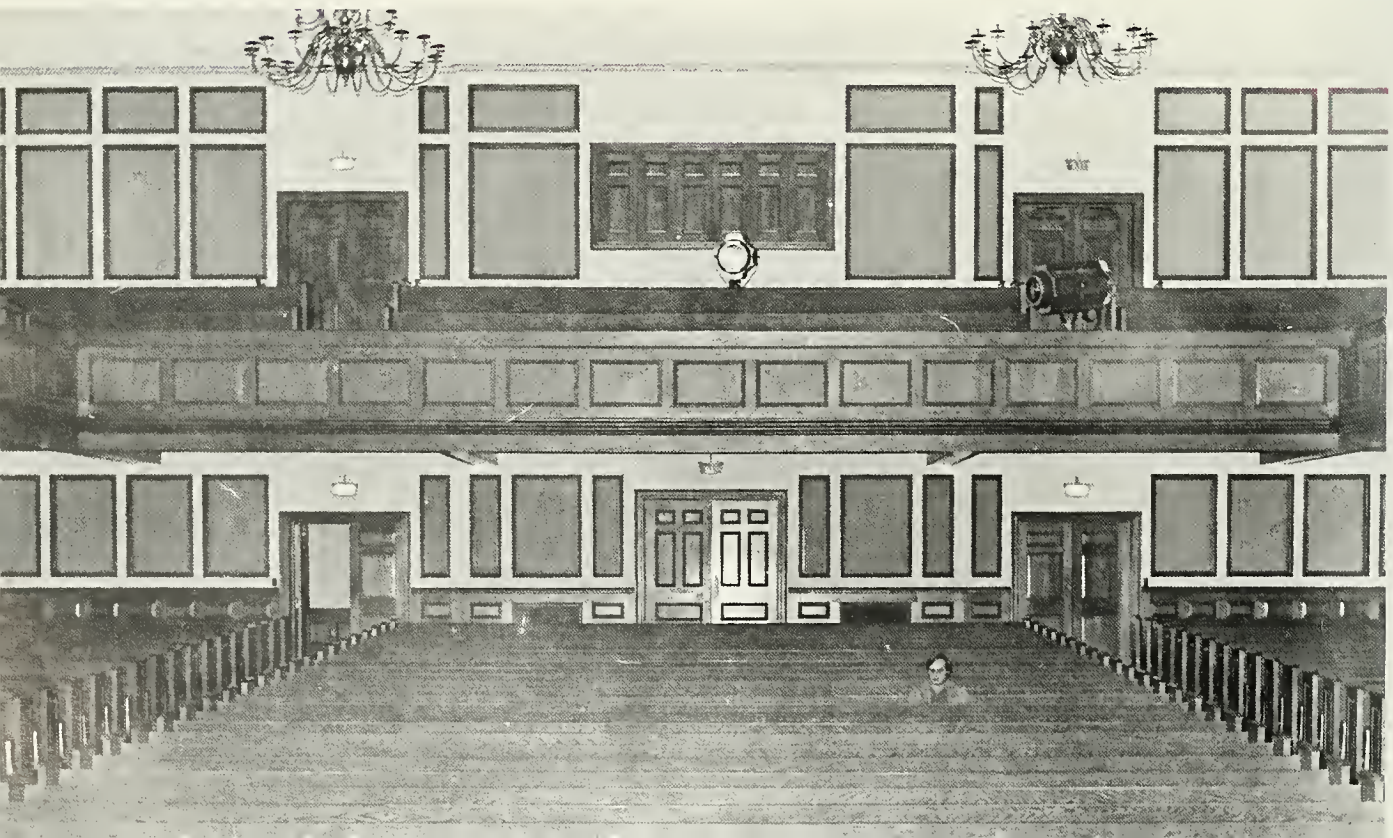


a time to cast away stones,

and a time to gather stones together;

a time to embrace,

and a time to refrain from embracing;



a time to seek,

and a time to lose;

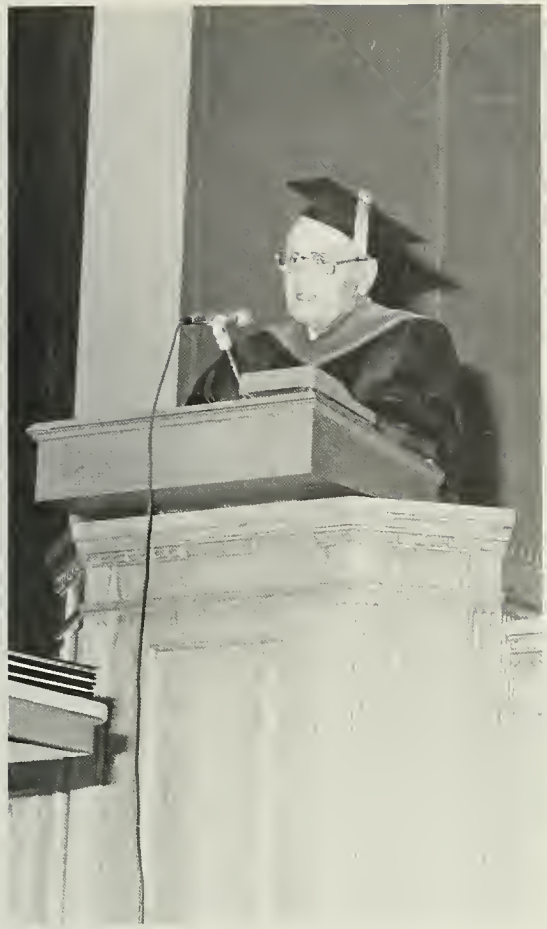
a time to keep,

Memory's flame is soon
ignited,
Lighting my lamp with amber
glow,
Quietly friends are reunited,
Singing a song of long ago.

Carole King

and a time to cast away;

"We'll do it now, Howard: part, as friends,
and meet as strangers."



a time to speak,

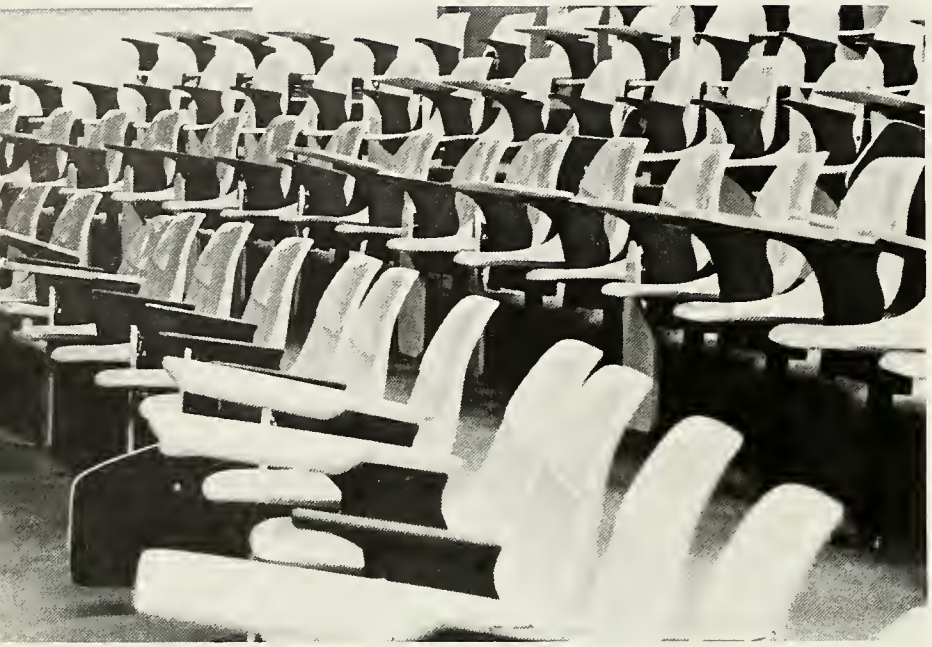
When your friend speaks his mind you fear not the "nay" in your own mind, nor do you withhold the "ay". And when he is silent your heart ceases not to listen to his heart; for without words, in friendship, all thoughts, all desires, all expectations are born and shared, with joy that is unacclaimed.

Kahlil Gibran

A friend is one whom one may pour out all the contents of one's heart, chaff and grain together; knowing that the gentlest of hands will take and sift it, keep what is worth keeping, and with a breath of kindness blow the rest away.

Dinah Maria Mulock Craik

and a time to be silent;



What happens during the unspoken dialogue between two people can never be changed by anything they say.

Martin Buber

a time to love,

There is in man's nature a secret inclination and motion towards love of others,
which, if it be not spent
upon someone or a few, doth naturally spread itself towards many, and maketh men become humane and charitable.

Francis Bacon

By the accident of fortune
a man may rule the world for a time, but by virtue of love he may rule the world
forever.

Lao-Tse

You become responsible for what you have loved.

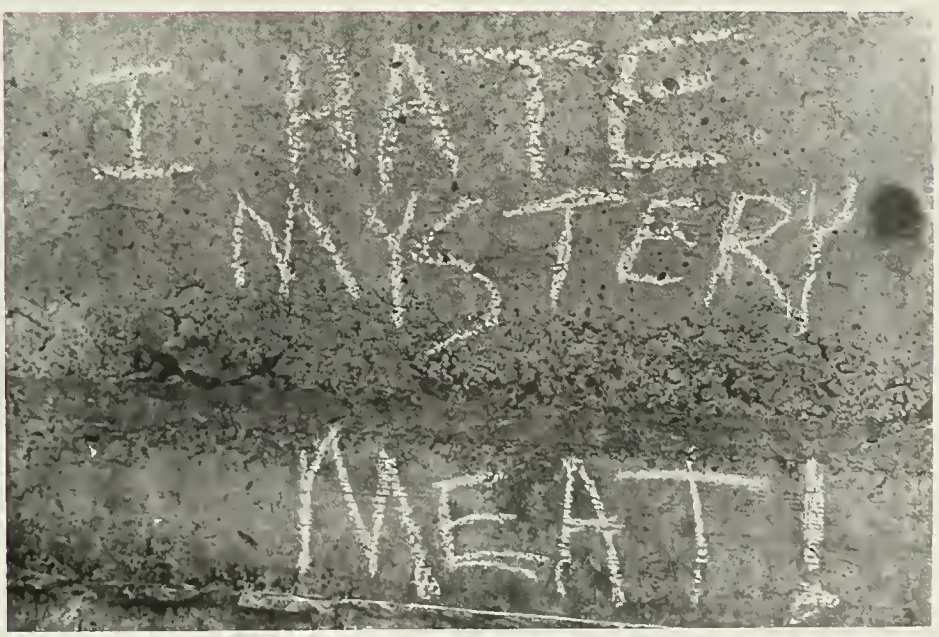
Antoine de Saint Exupery

and a time to hate;



a time of conflict,

ecclesiastes 3:1-8

Peace I leave with you; my peace I give to you; not as the world gives, do I give to you. Let not your heart be troubled, nor let it be fearful.

John 14:27

Quiet minds cannot be perplexed or frightened, but go on in fortune or misfortune at their own private pace, like a clock in a thunderstorm.

CLASS OF 1977

Friends come, friends go; the loves
men know are ever fleeting;
In song and smile a little while
we read their kindly greeting;
With warmth and cheer they linger near,
the friends we fondly treasure;
Then on a day they drift away,
a loss no words can measure.
This much we know; friends come, friends go,
as April's gladness passes,
As sun and shade, in swift parade,
paint changes on meadow grasses.
And though we grieve to see them leave,
in thought we still enfold them;
In Memory's Net we keep them yet,
and thus can ever hold them.

Since Becky Reeves is a senior this year, we feel that she deserves a special award. Not for being a senior but for what we believe is outstanding Christian service in the last four years. Although there was no award for "Best Barber" at this years Awards Banquet we're sure that Becky would have gotten it. Becky could be seen in the Hart lobby many times cutting hair. The thing we feel is really special about Becky's service is that she would never accept any money for her services. When asked once about her free haircuts Becky replied that it was a way to be of service for her. Thanks a lot Becky!

In spite of and extremely small staff and numerous problems and delays the 1977 BUFFALO is finally finished. "To everything a season . . . " It is traditional for the editor to thank the staff; yet somehow "Thank you" doesn't seem to be quite enough. Without their hard work, there would be no 1977 BUFFALO.

Thank you,

Becky Coleman, for the long hours you put in and all the work you accomplished, for the sympathetic ear you lent when pictures were delayed or other problems arose, for the creative ideas, scheduling club and senior pictures, and most of all for being a friend.

Ed Charlton, for the days and weeks it seemed like you were in the darkroom, your creative photography, your willingness to listen to my ideas and your attempts to accomplish them, and your listening ability as a friend.

Tim Brady, for all the pictures in the senior section, even if everyone did want to have theirs taken at the waterfall, you photos which help make the introduction work, the endsheets, and your ideas to make this year's yearbook better than Anna's.

Anne Stanley, for your photography and willingness to be there with a camera when no one else could. Too bad we couldn't use some of the shots you took of what girl's dorm life was really like.

Nancy Lauyer, for your dedication to the ad section and your willingness to help wherever you were needed. No one can sell ads like you.

Kitty Becker, for your help with the ads and assistance with the underclass pictures. Also for your willingness to help and sympathetic ear.

Marilyn Wood, for assisting with the underclass pictures and only drinking as much Mr. Pibb as I could reasonably afford.

Rod Irvin, for all your help in getting things arranged and straightening things out, and for your excellent photography.

Mr. Wright, our advisor, for not being the typical bossy advisor.

Bill Stoess, our yearbook representative, for putting up with us all along, helping out when problems arose, and at least making my P.O. box worthwhile.

I don't think I could have asked for a better staff. I just wish there had been a few more.
